

TUITION ASSISTANCE APPLICATION PACKET

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Who will be eligible for the tuition assistance program at CAA?

For this school year, the eligibility criteria for consideration for tuition assistance are as follows.

- The child must be accepted as a student at Columbus Adventist Academy and the family must show proof of the lack of financial resources to pay the child(ren)'s tuition.
- The income of the parents or guardian will be a determining factor for tuition assistance.
- The number of children attending private school will also be considered.

What steps should I follow to be considered for tuition assistance?

Step 1: Complete the attached Tuition Assistance Application.

Step 2: Return completed application along with the required documents in a sealed envelope to the school principal or secretary by June 30 to begin to receive aid the first month of the school year. Applications for tuition assistance received after that date will be reviewed and awards will be distributed the quarter following receipt of the application if funds are available.

What are the required documents that must be submitted with the application?

You must send the following documents with the application for tuition assistance.

- A copy of the IRS 1040 Federal Income Tax Return (adjusted income page only)
- your most recent W-2 Form(s)
- 3 months of current pay stubs.

NOTE: If your family is on public assistance and you did not file an annual tax return, you must provide documentation of the type and amount of assistance you are receiving.

Do I have any other options?

You are encouraged to recruit sponsors that are willing to contribute 1) a flat dollar amount each month, or 2) a one-time donation to assist with the expenses of your child's education.
